

Strategy Manager, Strategy and Transactions

The opportunity:

You'll be a part of a very dynamic team focused on the following types of projects:

- Corporate and growth strategy – providing in-depth market, competitor and customer insights and leveraging financial and operational perspectives to implement strategic plans,
- Transaction strategy and execution – projects across the whole deal lifecycle (e.g. Commercial Due Diligence, Value Creation Plan, Post Merger Integration),
- Turnaround and restructuring strategy – projects focused on solving business issues in critical and complex situations to reshape for a better future.

Locally, our focus is in the below sectors:

- Private Equity,
- Consumer Products & Retail,
- Financial Services,
- Technology & Media & Telecommunication,
- B2B Services,
- Industry.

Your key responsibilities:

- leading projects from a diverse range of industries,
- leading business development,
- developing and mentoring junior team members.

Skills and attributes:

- strong experience in leadership, managing complex business projects and team play attitude,
- strong internal and external business development acumen,
- strong creativity, innovation, problem solving skills,
- strong analytical & structuring skills and ability to translate data into insight,
- understanding of economics and ability to/experience of quantifying impacts,
- strong business acumen and investigative mindset,
- ability to write concisely, expressing what really matters,
- strong communication and client handling skills,
- ability to organize work efficiently and meet deadlines,
- good knowledge of MS Office,

- fluency in Polish and English.

Your background:

- graduate of a top tier Polish or foreign university,
- strong track record in strategy consulting – 5-7 years within a Strategy or Big 4 consultancy or blue chip industry organization,
- experience in managerial role.

Ideally, you'll also have:

- a top tier university MBA degree will be considered as a strong asset,
- fluency in other languages than Polish and English.

What working offers:

- working in a dynamic and fast growing team in the international environment,
- fast career progression and opportunities to develop new skills in very experienced team with extensive strategy consulting experience,
- attractive remuneration package linked to your individual and team performance,
- culture of support, coaching and open feedback.

plus:

- qualifications and certificates
- diverse experience in a variety of teams
- an individual training map
- flexible time and place of work
- dedicated Career Counselor
- Care & Wellness program
- office with a nice view and in a prestigious location